

MINISTER LIZ LAWSON

Liz Lawson has served as a campus minister with Cru for 19 years, first in Moscow, Russia and then in Boston until 2022 when she decided to make a career change to social work. She recently graduated from Salem State University with her MSW and looks forward to embarking on a new career path.

Liz finds great joy in walking alongside others in their spiritual journeys and seeing God at work in their lives. Ministry has always been important to her, and she enjoys coming together with others in prayer and bible study. Liz was licensed to preach the gospel at Community of Love Christian Fellowship on August 20, 2023.

Liz grew up in Irving, Texas, and received her bachelor's degree from Texas A&M University in Speech Communication. She lives in Watertown with her husband, Chris, and their three children - Graham (14), Lydia (12), and Ruth (9). In her free time, she enjoys taking boxing classes, sipping on good coffee, and being outdoors - biking, walking, hiking or hanging at the dog park with the family dog, Juniper.

Liz's favorite Bible verse is Ephesians 2:10 - "For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do."
